Books on Call NYC, Inc. is an independent bookselling service exclusively for off-site author events. Handling book sales at author signings in venues all over New York City since 2013, Books on Call NYC has provided bookselling services in private homes, clubs, universities, nonprofit and for-profit organizations and trade shows and conferences (including one of our favorites, The New York Times Travel Show). Whenever an author is having a personal appearance/book signing, Books on Call NYC is able to provide the books and a professional bookseller to handle the sales. Books are our passion and we take great pride in serving the literary community.
